

Depositing your dissertation into Fred Hutch's Institutional Repository (IR) will give your paper a permanent online home, searchable and discoverable via an international system of academic library repositories and federated search mechanisms. If you would like an embargo placed on the release of your electronic dissertation or would prefer to restrict access to our campus only, let us know and we can set that up in our repository.

Please provide a PDF file of the complete, final version of your dissertation to the library. You can email this to us at library@fhcrc.org or stop by in person with a thumb drive to transfer it to us.

Please read and sign the authorization below:

I authorize Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center to deposit my dissertation in its Institutional Repository. (Check one)

Deposit my dissertation and release immediately to the web without embargo.

Deposit my dissertation, but embargo until _____. (date)

Deposit my dissertation, but restrict access to the campus only until otherwise notified.
